

3TG: DRC Conflict-Free Declaration

On July 21, 2010 the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act was signed into law in the United States. This law requires public companies on any U.S. Stock Exchange to report if they are purchasing 3TG metals (tantalum, tungsten, tin, and gold) out of the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC). Allegro MicroSystems, Inc. is pleased to declare that 3TG metals used in parts are Conflict-free.

Allegro MicroSystems, LLC, is pleased to provide our customers with information regarding the materials used in the manufacturing of our semiconductor products. We value our relationship and appreciate the need for environmental controls. Allegro considers itself to be an environmentally responsible company.

Based on the data provided by our suppliers, Allegro MicroSystems, Inc. complies with all applicable local, state, federal, and international environmental and Code of Conduct regulations. To assure compliance, we require that our material suppliers provide confirmation to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. Should new information be provided from our suppliers which changes the status of our parts, notification will be provided promptly.

Allegro MicroSystems, Inc. assures customers that everything reasonably possible is being performed to maintain compliance with all environmental and Code of Conduct standards. However, Allegro MicroSystems, Inc. does not produce any of the materials contained in our product, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any document, Allegro MicroSystems, Inc. shall not be liable, under any theory of law, and shall not be responsible to defend or indemnify any party should any material be out of compliance. Controls are in place will help assure that Allegro MicroSystems, Inc. remains compliant. We will continue to communicate with our suppliers and maintain compliance records for all our products as part of our Code of Conduct program.

Kristian Bonzey

Product and Materials Compliance Analyst

January 13, 2021